OKLAHOMA FEDERAL EXECUTIVE BOARD
2021 EXCELLENCE IN GOVERNMENT AWARDS

INSTRUCTIONS

The 2021 Oklahoma Federal Executive Board (OK FEB) Excellence in Government (EIG) awards program recognizes current military, postal, and federal civilian employees for their individual and team accomplishments both in the workplace and the community at large.

PERFORMANCE PERIOD: The performance being recognized must have occurred during 2020. (2020 finalists may not be nominated again for the same category. Employees can be nominated for no more than three categories (team or individual)).

NEW TO 2021: Beginning this year, the EIG award nominees will not compete based upon their agency (DoD & non-DoD). Each nominee will be competing against other nominees based upon their Paygrade, Payband, Wage Grade, or military rank. Pages 7 & 8 outline the categories and award type (Junior or Senior).

One award will be presented in each of the following categories:

DEFINITIONS FOR ALL EIG AWARD CATEGORIES

ADMINISTRATIVE/CLERICAL: Occupations that require structured work in support of office, business, or fiscal operations performed in accordance with established policies, procedures, or techniques and requiring training, experience, or working knowledge related to the tasks to be performed.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: The contribution of time and talents to community betterment through volunteer work in civic or humanitarian activities. This award will be presented to an individual who has enhanced the image of federal employees and given conspicuous service to the community or general public through non-job-related activities. Nominees should devote significant personal time and effort to community activities, welfare organizations, or other non-profit non-partisan groups on an ongoing basis.

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION: Employees (military and civilian) who have demonstrated an exemplary commitment to the advancement of diversity and inclusion within their agencies or their communities. This includes but not limited to the hosting of training on diversity/inclusion topics, developing innovative practices, championed inclusive excellence, or serving on diversity and inclusion committees.

GOVERNMENT INNOVATION: Individuals who implement innovative and transformative ideas within our federal community. Nominees must demonstrate a firm commitment to creative solution development to support new initiatives. This includes but limited to increasing efficiencies and effectiveness of the federal government through technology, management strategy, new processes, collaboration or workforce development.

PROFESSIONAL: Requires knowledge in a field of science or learning characteristically acquired through education or training equivalent to a bachelor's or higher degree with major study in or pertinent to the specialized field, as distinguished from general education.

PUBLIC SAFETY & SECURITY: Occupations which are engaged in performing law enforcement, emergency response, security, investigative, or related work who have performed their duties in a highly efficient and skillful manner. This includes but is not limited to firefighters, law enforcement officials, EMT personnel, and all security-related positions.

TECHNICAL

IT/CYBER: Occupations that involve the development, exercise, or maintenance of Information Technology and/or Cyber technology functions. This includes but not limited to computer scientists, software engineers, mobile application developer, geospatial, data modeler, computer information systems, etc.

NON-IT/CYBER: Work is typically associated with and supportive of a professional or administrative field, which is non-routine in nature and which involves extensive practical knowledge gained through on-the-job experience or specific training less than represented by college degree.

TRADES AND CRAFTS: Occupations that include the trades, crafts, and manual labor (unskilled, semi-skilled, or skilled), including foremen and supervisory positions entailing trade, craft or laboring experience and knowledge as the paramount requirement.

EIG INDIVIDUAL AWARD CATEGORIES ONLY

CUSTOMER SERVICE: Individuals who demonstrate a strong commitment to improving customer service, customer satisfaction and improved relations. Other attributes include, but not limited to:

- Creating a welcoming environment for customers
- Consistently displays a positive attitude as well as maintains a high level of professionalism
- Continuously exceeds expectations when providing assistance to customers
- Displays initiative and resourcefulness when troubleshooting problems and/or complaints
- Takes ownership of problems and follows through until completion and/or resolution

LEADERSHIP: Responsibility for oversight of employees above the first-line supervisor level. This includes managers who are agency heads, military commanders, special agents in charge, deputies, and assistants.

SUPERVISORY: Individuals responsible for directing the work of others. This includes all managerial and supervisory levels (except agency heads). Nominations may be made from any field with the principal factors being their competency, efficiency and accomplishment as a supervisor. The individual must demonstrate integrity, devotion to duty, and commitment to public service in the capacity of a manager or supervisor.

EIG TEAM AWARD CATEGORY ONLY

INTER-AGENCY COLLABORATION: Developing, supporting, and implementing an interagency or intergovernmental initiative to increase the effectiveness of the organizations involved, or improved efficiencies for all agencies involved. The effort should demonstrate creative means to successfully overcome the various challenges of diversified missions to accomplish a common-interest outcome, increasing efficiency and effectiveness.

DEFINITIONS: CFC Awards

CFC Award Individual & Team Categories

CFC COORDINATOR/KEYWORKER. These positions' primary responsibilities are to actively promote the CFC and directly engage with their colleagues to consider donating to the CFC.

CFC PROMOTIONS/SPECIAL EVENT ORGANIZER. The volunteer(s) who are key to the organization and success of CFC promotional activities, such as a special event or display(s), considering points such as creativity, publicity, employee attendance, effect on morale, and overall impact on the campaign.

CFC Award Individual Category Only

CFC LOANED EXECUTIVE. The loaned executive is assigned as an extension of the CFC professional staff to departments and/or agencies throughout the government to assist in all phases of the CFC.

CRITERIA FOR COMBINED FEDERAL CAMPAIGN AWARDS

The consideration of efforts and participation in the 2020 Oklahoma/N. Texas Combined Federal Campaign (CFC); CFC statistics should reference increased percentages of employees contacted, employees participated, or employee attendance at local CFC events. Monetary statistical data should not be included in the award nomination submission.

Evaluation Period: Raters should focus on the nominee's direct contributions to the 2020 CFC Campaign. However, because of the significant changes to the CFC in 2020 by the U.S Office of Personnel Management, raters are authorized and encouraged to include contributions prior to, during, and after the 2020 Campaign (20 September 2020 – 15 January 2021) by the nominee.

Criteria for awards related to Combined Federal Campaign:

- Creation, organization, and oversight of special events and promotional activities for the CFC
- Increased participation and morale / team building, for both CFC and overall workplace
- Statistical improvements, to the degree known over the previous year's campaign. i.e.: Number of employees participating or a percentage increase in participation of the employee base over previous year's campaign.
- Timely reporting and accurate paperwork for special event organizing to the outreach Coordinator, and/or pledges to CFC Central Campaign Administrator.
- Demonstrated consistent and excellent communication skills to all involved in the campaign (Agency heads, Outreach Coordinator, Campaign Coordinator, Loaned Executives, donors, etc.)

For specific questions regarding the CFC Awards, contact the Oklahoma/N. Texas CFC office at (405) 808-3574.
